MAP International receives $30,000 grant from The UPS Foundation

ATLANTA, GA -- September 28, 2017-- MAP International today received a $30,000 grant from The UPS Foundation, which drives global corporate citizenship and philanthropic programs for UPS (NYSE:UPS).

This generous grant will help provide vital medicines and health supplies for people affected by natural disasters and poverty around the world.

"On behalf of the 10 million people we serve, MAP is profoundly grateful to the UPS Foundation and the employees and retirees of UPS who passionately support their communities around the globe," said Steve Stirling, MAP International President and Chief Executive Officer.

MAP International (MAP) provides life-changing medicines and health supplies to people in the world's poorest communities. In times of disaster, MAP provides immediate humanitarian assistance and relief aid including medicines and health supplies to those left homeless and without access to basic services.

The initial grant of $25,000 received today helped MAP establish the Bill Foege Global Health Awards, presented by MAP International. The UPS Foundation extended its support to MAP by $5,000 to support relief work in areas of the Caribbean affected by Hurricane Maria.

MAP International is one of the nation's 100 largest non-profit organizations and is recognized for its efficiency by charity rating organizations, achieving the highest scores from the Charity Navigator, CNBC and Forbes magazine.

Established in 1951 and based in Atlanta, Ga., The UPS Foundation identifies specific areas where its backing clearly impacts social issues. In support of this strategic approach, The UPS Foundation has identified the following focus areas for giving: volunteerism, diversity, community safety and the environment.

In 2016, UPS and its employees, active and retired, invested more than $116.6 million in charitable giving around the world. The UPS Foundation can be found on the web at UPS.com/foundation. To get UPS news direct, visit pressroom.ups.com/RSS.

"The UPS Foundation is honored to support the MAP International's efforts to provide life-saving medicines and health supplies for people in need," said Eduardo Martinez, president of The UPS Foundation and chief diversity and inclusion officer at UPS. "Our goal is to fund powerful programs that make a lasting difference to the global community."
